Racing Background

Ralph took over Windsor House Stables and started training in November 1999 on the retirement of Peter Walwyn to whom he had been Assistant Trainer to for three and a half years.

Windsor House Stables is situated right in the heart of Lambourn. Windsor House is self contained with fifty boxes, an equine pool, solarium, four-horse walker, a weighing machine, turnout pens and a three furlong woodchip canter.

Ralph's notable achievements include INZACURE who won four races off the reel at two years, including three in a week in December 2000. Flying Millie was a Shergar Cup winner at Ascot in August 2001, while 2003 proved to be Ralph's best ever season with Seventeen Flat winners and one National Hunt winner.
